

COURSE: Portraiture & Figures

TUTOR: Linda Aubrecht

COURSE OUTLINE.

In this class we look at what makes a good portrait or figure work, getting a likeness, how to choose a good subject, drawing from life Vs drawing from reference materials and self portraiture.

This class is for all levels of drawing experience, from beginner, to intermediate through to advanced artist. You will be able to work at your own pace and the course covers some basic drawing techniques that can be applied to your portraits and figures

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN.

We will be using many drawing mediums and you can choose the medium(s) you prefer in both black and white as in graphite, charcoal, ink, colour pencil, pastel (oil and soft) and pastel pencil

Some of the subjects will be provided, others you will need to bring in such as a family photograph, or a picture taken from a book or magazine.

You are encouraged to explore different drawing mediums – some mediums may suit your style better than others.

START-UP MATERIALS LIST.

Bring the following with you to your first class :-

- Sketch book.
- Pencils: HB, B, 2B and 4B.
- Kneadable eraser.
- We will be exploring charcoal, colour pencil and pastel.
