

Saturday Sketch Club.

Drawing from a live model on the second and fourth Saturdays of each month, including school holidays. This activity will develop your eye in observation, drawing and painting tone and line. Observing and drawing the human body is an important activity for both the new and developing artist.

This is a casual activity and costs $20 per session to cover the cost of the model. There is no need to book or pay in advance. Sessions run from 2pm to 4pm. There is no tutor however students learn from each other as their practice develops.

You may work in whatever media you like, usually graphite, charcoal or pastel pencil is used. Students generally work in A3 and larger paper, Cheap pads are OK however for longer poses you may wish to bring a better quality paper. Easels and boards A2 size are available. We start with 2min. poses then 5min, 15min and twenty minute poses. You should be setup ready to start at 2pm.
